Count Your Blessings

Instead of recounting your woes. . .
count your blessings!

Rather than hashing your frustrations. . .
count your blessings!

Why fuss with your family, when you can. . .
count your blessings?!

Don't fret about things you can't fix . . .
count your blessings!

Quit grumbling about what you don't have. Focus on what you DO have and. . .
count your blessings!

Instead of stewing in your circumstances, take a chance and . . .
count your blessings!

Sure, there's plenty wrong with this old world -- but there's plenty right too! Just stop for a moment and . . .
Count your blessings!

Yesterday carries a load of baggage, but remember the glad days and . . .
count your blessings!

Tomorrow brings uncertainties, but nothing you and God can't handle together. Throw your shoulders back with faith and. . .
count your blessings!

Life on earth is much too short to spend in swamps of discouragement. Look up! Help is on the way! You can smile and. . .
count your blessings!
